

CLASS HIGHLIGHTS

Sarah Eichhorn, Assistant Professor and Co-chair of the Fashion Department at Mount Mary University, will share her knowledge of and interest in fiber and fashion. An accomplished artist of handwoven items, she will help you "connect with your clothing."

Milwaukee resident and 2016 Quilt Con award winner, Heidi Parkes, will demonstrate Japanese crewel embroidery. You will have the opportunity to try your hand with this stitching tradition using wool threads.

Have fun creating gifts for others—or yourself!

Project classes and workshops include wool quillie Christmas tree, wool braided pins, wool snowmen, wool sampler suitable for framing, or a wool coiled bowl. Have fun playing with wool!

This program was supported in part by a grant from the Wisconsin Arts Board with funds from the State of Wisconsin and the National Endowment for the Arts.

Keynote Speakers

Ingrid and Peter McMasters
"Where the Fiber Leads"

A day of classes and workshops, taught by fourteen midwest artists, with opportunities for exposure to and experience with wool and other natural fibers. The full-day event includes a keynote address; choices of four one-hour classes or a single one-hour class followed by an afternoon three-hour workshop. Create objects with woven wool, stitch with wool, or embellish wool. Learn about thread and fibers, felting, spinning and weaving. Be introduced to rescuing, transforming, sustaining, and reusing fibers, fabrics and garments.

There is something for everyone!
